

The Centre in October: Learn Czech at Any Age

Dear friends,

In this month's newsletter you will find out what events we are preparing in October. We will open Czech courses for parents with children and for seniors. We are also preparing e-learning courses thanks to which you can learn Czech online. We will also be preparing adaptation-integration courses in five languages.

Learn Czech from the Living Room

Czech e-learning courses start on 17 October. In these courses, you will practice Czech grammar. Thanks to entertaining and interactive exercises, articles, videos and audio recordings you can also practice reading, writing and speaking. The courses are online, and you can participate from wherever.

Studying at Any Age

In October, we are also preparing Czech courses for everyone. On Monday 10 October we will start online courses for parents with children. The courses will take place on Zoom and are intended for Slavics and Non-Slavics. We are also preparing courses for seniors (65+ years old) and for children (5-7 and 6-11 years old).
