

The Centre in January: New Address, Czech Language Classes, and Career Counseling

Dear friends,

In our monthly newsletter you will find out about the events we are preparing for you in January. We will be opening new free Czech language courses which you can register for in January. You will also have the opportunity to make use of career counseling of our colleagues from the Skill Centre, and we also launched a new campaign about foreigners in the South Moravian region.

We Moved!

Starting January, you can find us in a new place: Kounicova 1. Luckily, we haven't moved too far away. We are just half a minute by walking away from our former location. Come visit us in our new offices. We will be on the ground floor of the new building. We're looking forward to seeing you!

Make Use of Career Counseling

Our colleagues from the Skill Centre have a new webpage on www.skillcentrum.cz. If you are looking for a job, they will gladly help you at the Skill Centre. Their aim is to ensure that qualified foreigners arriving in the South Moravian region can make use of their skills and expertise by finding relevant employment in the Czech job market. Register for your career consultation, or jobmentoring.

Questionnaire

South Moravian region is realizing a project "Analysis of the needs of key participants in the area of employment of foreigners in the South Moravian region". Part of the project is the identification of the needs of different target groups. Therefore, we would like to ask you a few questions throughout the questionnaire which is completely anonymous.

Register into Czech Language Courses

In January we are opening the registration into Czech grammar courses. In these courses you will practice your vocabulary, grammar, reading, writing, and listening. Our teachers can't wait to meet you. You can register for courses for Non-EU citizens from 22 January. Registration for EU citizens starts a week later, on 29 January.

New Campaign "Our Compatriots"

Stories of foreigners who decided to leave their homeland and move to South Moravia are told in the new campaign of the South Moravian region Our Compatriots. The main aim of the campaign is to fight against prejudice of foreigners and the message that we can live together regardless of our roots.
