The Centre for Foreigners of the South Moravian Region (JMK) is the best place for new incoming foreigners with a wide range of services that support coexistence with the local community.

Our priority is to provide services and qualified support for every foreigner with legal status in the Czech Republic through an individual approach in a friendly environment of willingness and openness.

We are professionals who wear their hearts on their sleeves, and who understand their clients and their needs.

Do not hesitate to contact us everytime!

All of our services are provided free of charge!

We provide:

- a professional information service for free
- accompaniment at the authorities and institutions
- czech language courses
- the services of highly-qualified lawyers and social counselors
- a wide range of vocational courses, lectures, workshops
- courses for newcomers to the Czech Republic and the South Moravian region
- activities for mothers and children
- space for meetings and learning
- adaptation and integration course
- ... and much more
